

The Catalinas

Beach & Variety

Since the beginning in 1957, The Catalinas have been consistently entertaining audiences to rave reviews throughout the south. As one of the longest running bands in the circuit, The Catalinas have managed to keep their show fresh, exciting, fun and most of all entertaining over these 40 plus years. Gary Barker (guitar/vocals) the band leader and member since 1965 attributes the band's long success to the on going popularity of beach music & the tunes the band has composed, particularly "Summertime's Calling Me" in the 70s.

They have filled Myrtle Beach Pavilion more times than its members can count. The Catalinas have been the warm-up band for such acts as the Temptations, The Four Tops, & even The Monkeys in the summer of '97, before 35,000 people in Kingsport, TN.

Alan Eisele & Don West of Statesville have been fans of the Catalinas since the group's inception. They loved heading to Statesville's Grace Park Recreation Center on weekends in the '60s to hear the band perform. Eisele, Statesville's most recognized Elvis impersonator, credits the band's success to its appeal to '50 nostalgia; its "excellent musicians over the years"; its unbeatable lyrics; & the fact that the tunes are easy to dance to. "The music is good, so it endures," said West, who now owns West Properties in downtown Statesville. "I like to see them because they're fun."
